Ali McGregor's Late-Nite Variety-Nite Night

Top Hats, Comedy, Circus, Song.

The cult, late night variety show returns to Edinburgh Fringe Festival - this time in the midst of all the action of the Assembly Rooms. Let Ali McGregor, of La Clique and The Opera Burlesque, take you into a world of vaudeville skits and fancy tricks. It's late, the bar is open and the scene is set for the festival's finest stand-up comedians, burlesque dancers, sideshow acts, musicians and acrobats to collide. Variety at it's best.

'...partial nudity, offensive tricks and gorgeous song' The Melbourne Age

Hosted by Ali and assisted by her butler Saxon McCallister (sideshow comedian Asher Treleaven) the night is littered with the unique interpretations of songs that Ali has become known for in the late-nite clubs of Melbourne, New York, London and Edinburgh including Mark Watson's 24-hour shows and La Clique – a Sideshow Burlesque.

'...a luscious, doe-eyed man-eater made from the finest Dresden china.' The Sunday Times

A hit the last three years at Melbourne International Comedy Festival and Edinburgh '07 with guests like Adam Hills, Tim Minchin, Danny Bhoj, Missy Malone, David O'Doherty, Maeve Higgins, Stephen K Amos, Reginald D Hunter, Mark Watson, Sammy J, Captain Frodo, Idiots of Ants, Reggie Watts, Paul Zenon and Dave Gorman. Expect surprises, spontaneous duets and unique moments of greatness.

'For anyone eager to check out a broad and rangy selection of the Comedy Festival's top cabaret, vaudeville and stand-up acts, this late-night variety special is the best-value show in town' The Melbourne Age

Ticket includes entry into the Supper Club with guest hosts, DJ's and featured artists from across the entire festival.
